

Long Beach Cares

A Partnership of Long Beach, California and Long Beach, Mississippi

Long Beach, MS was devastated by Hurricane Katrina in August 2005. In response, Beverly O’Neill, Mayor of Long Beach, CA moved quickly to reach out and assist Long Beach, MS. One element of that program is a lecture series.

Lecture Series

organized by

Aquarium of the Pacific

To Raise and Generate Financial and Technical Assistance for Long Beach, Mississippi

July 10, 2006

Setting The Stage for Increasing Natural Disaster—The Interplay of Natural Events and an Increasing Population Living in Harm’s Way
Asif Shaikh and Timothy Knight, International Resources Group

July 17, 2006

The Story of Katrina and What She Left Behind in the Gulf
Dr. Joseph Suhayda, Professor Emeritus, LSU and Kerry M. St. Pé, Program Director, Barataria-Terrebonne National Estuary Program

July 24, 2006

The Multiple Dimensions of Disaster Preparedness, Response and Rebuilding—Why Are We Such Slow Learners?
David McKinnie, Coordinator, NOAA Indian Ocean Tsunami Warning System Program and Dr. Gavin Smith, Director, Office of Recovery and Renewal, Mississippi Office of the Governor

July 31, 2006

Long Beach—A Tale of Two Cities: Long Beach, MS and Long Beach, CA—They Share More Than A Name
Mayor Billy Skellie, Long Beach, MS (by video conference); Mayor Beverly O’Neill, Long Beach, CA who initiated the program; and the new mayor of Long Beach, CA to be elected in June 2006

WHERE: Honda Theater, Aquarium of the Pacific
WHEN: Mondays, July 10 – 31, 2006, 7:00 p.m.
COST: Suggested donation of $7.
All proceeds go to Long Beach, MS
This does not include Aquarium admission as the galleries will close at 6:00 p.m.
RSVP: Advance reservations required. Call (562) 590-3100, ext. 0

For advance tickets, call (562) 590-3100 or visit www.aquariumofpacific.org.

100 AQUARIUM WAY • LONG BEACH, CA